To whom it may concern,

As the manager of Photon Lines, I had the honor of employing Philippe Lachamp for a period of 6 years as a sales manager for the Bio-imaging sector at first and as a sales manager for the team dedicated to the academic market later.

Philippe is a committed and professional man; he strives to succeed in his missions and contribute to the performance of his company.

He has the skills necessary to supervise his team and generate cohesion.

I would not hesitate to recommend Philippe for his technical and managerial qualities.

I am available to answer any questions that a recruiter would like to ask a former employer of Philippe.
